Program – Ed Bernal, Octopus Car Wash

The Octopus Car Wash chain was founded by John Jerkins in Rock Island, Illinois in 1953. Ed Bernal became involved through his wife, Jody's family. He'd worked as a respiratory therapist but wanted to own his own business. Research showed Sahuarita's potential for growth. Ed said the building used block construction because China's demand for steel has pushed prices out of sight. The business opened in June with 15 workers; now it employs 50. Where a home or charity carwash might use 100 gallons, Octopus uses 30, and recycles 25% of it, then cleans up its discharge.
