Banner Exchange

Judith Cox, from the Fairfield, Iowa, Club, exchanged banners with President-elect Andy Heideman. Her Club was founded in 1920, and their banner includes a 2¢ postage stamp.

New Rotary Theme for Next Year

RI President-elect John Germ announced that the theme for 2016-17 will be “Rotary Serving Humanity.” As RI completes the eradication of polio, with Nigeria declared polio-free in 2015, we see plenty of work still needing to be done in the areas of clean water, health, education, and world peace.

Coming Events

- Winefest, April 9

Appreciation Plaque

Past President Dick Roberts had planned to present a plaque to County Sheriff Chris

Nanos in appreciation of exemplary service to Green Valley and Pima County, but the Sheriff, who was to be our guest speaker, was in a traffic accident on his way to the meeting. His backup, Cpt. David Theel, accepted on his behalf.

Pima County Sheriff’s Department

Captain David

Theel joined the Pima County Sheriff’s Department in 1992. He has experience in patrol operations, traffic enforcement, and investigations, and he is currently Patrol Division Commander, in charge of 216 deputies. He did a brilliant job filling in for Sheriff Nanos.

He advised us to be involved in our neighborhoods and to report anything unusual. He warned about scams, advising cynicism. But he really shone in response to our many questions. Regarding border issues, he said the multi-agency approach didn’t give the level of service to our rural areas we’d like. Their aim is to provide a response time of less than 5 minutes. Theel spoke highly of the department’s training for its officers. He mentioned that the School Resource Officer program, which had been shut down for budget reasons, had been restarted by Sheriff Nanos.
