Community Service Awards

Marvin Hass, our community service chair, reminded us the deadline for applications is March 1. That's today! We had 8 candidates last year, and we need your help honoring our community volunteers again this year.

40 Years of Service

Sheila Frahm, wife of our sojourner Ken Frahm, was Lt. Governor of Kansas when Bob Dole resigned his Senate seat in 1996 to run for President. She had been a farm girl, used to steak for breakfast but not cashmere sweaters, and she worked her way up from local school board to state board of education to the Kansas state legislature before becoming Lt. Governor under Gov. Bill Graves, who appointed her to fill Dole's Senate seat. Her vivid description of a day in the life of a new Senator – hectic to say the least – was flavored with jokes and words of down home wisdom: "Be careful on the way up because you'll come back down." She was a moderate Republican, defeated that November by right wing Sam Brownback, who later as governor ruined the economy of the state.
