Alaskan Career

Mary Ann Paul, one of our sojourners from Alaska, shared her history with us, and, rather significantly, it was 99% about Alaska and only 1% about her career as a physical therapist, her doctorate, or her orthopedic specialty. Her pride in her home state (only 18 countries worldwide are larger) was clear, as was the importance of family in her life. Her dad was a charter member of the Anchorage Rotary Club. One picture with 48 people in it wasn't even all of her family.

Sign Up for My Rotary

Secretary Michael Pease gave us a step-by-step guide through the process of getting a My Rotary account. We need 4 more Club members to sign up for our Presidential Citation. One feature of My Rotary is that you can set up your own bookmarks for quicker navigation of the website.

Coming Events

- Community Service Awards, April 5
- District Assembly, April 9, Tucson
- Spring Bacchanal, April 9, West Center

Food Fight

Only 2 more days left in the food fight. Make checks out to the Green Valley Community Food Bank and give them to either Mary Jane Goodrick or Julie Reppenhagen.

Rotary Peace Centers

Jerry Meigs, a frequent visitor to our Club from St. Paul, MN, has been in Rotary since 1966, was a District Governor 1993-1994, and a Rotary International Director 2002-2003, and he is currently the Chair of the Rotary Peace Centers Major Gifts Initiative. Their goal is to raise $150 million.

The Peace Centers program started in 2002. It now has 6 centers at 7 universities. They offer 2 programs, a 2-year Masters for people who have experience in fields related to peace and conflict resolution, and Chulalongkorn University offers a 3-month professional development certificate for working professionals. There are now over 900 alumni working in over 100 countries. Jerry has hopes that someday a Peace Center graduate will be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.
