Vocational Talk

Joe Sovis was born in 1940 to Czech immigrants and grew up on an 80 acre farm in Central Michigan. He studied the insurance business at Michigan State, where his ROTC involvement turned into a commission after graduation and 2 years as an operations officer in Paris. He began his 38-year career in the insurance business in 1969 and spent 25 of them in partnership with his father. He has been a Rotarian since 1972, a Club President in 1976, and Chair for both his Club and District in Michigan for Rotary Youth Exchange. Joe is a member of our Club but like Joe Potter spends half the year away from Southern Arizona visitors help us expand our vision of what Rotary is doing in the world.

Pima County Sheriff

Pima County Sheriff Chris Nanos told us the key to solving problems is community involvement, and he said that even though Pima County is the 13th largest county in the US and shares 126 miles of border with Mexico, the crime rate is ¼ or less that of other agencies in the area. His deputies stuff food bags at the food bank, set up a Chat program for deployed military families, serve in soup kitchens, and have done a Christmas program for kids for 25 years. He gave everyone his cell phone number and said call if we see anything suspicious. He said county jail is the largest mental health hospital in the area and pointed out a $15/day ankle tracker beats the $90/day cost of imprisonment. He ended by forcefully saying the war on drugs needs new ideas. His compassion was amazing.
