Community Service Award

John Geiger is this year's winner of our Community Service Above Self Award. He organized the Volunteer Clearinghouse after a lifetime of doing volunteer work. He said the rewards come from the people one interacts with. He donated his $100 check from the Club to the Pima Council on aging.

Other nominees honored included Sandy Bird and Maddeline Sperry, who run Friends in Deed, the organization that loans out walkers and wheelchairs and such at no charge; Bonna Cunningham, who maintains the data base and website for the Volunteer Clearinghouse and plays piano at community events; Jean Davis, President of the Animal League, who believes in "a home for every pet"; Susan Ford, volunteer librarian at Continental School, who automated the library at San Xavier Mission School and has directed 5 plays at CPAC, she "hopes to do her little good thing as long as she is able." Peggy McGee, from Quail Creek Women, works with the Cancer Society and is a financial educator for VAS; Susan Ochs works at Tumacácori National Historic Park, and Michael Finkelstein directs mitzvahs (good deeds) with 150 volunteers from 10 faith-based organizations and manages their website, photography, and publicity.
