Bedlam Business

It was almost fortunate our speaker didn't find our meeting place at Torres Blancas last week until the meeting had ended. Secretary

Michael Pease got the attention of the Club once, but he learned 40 years ago how to stop a running 8th grader in his tracks from 50 yards away. The rest of the time, between red hats to the south of us, boisterous golfers to the west, and acoustically reflective walls to the north and east, no one could hear anything but the roar of the crowd.

Jill Leach thanked everyone for their help at the Bacchanal, but she said it was too soon to know how well we did financially. Meanwhile, anyone with money or tickets to turn in should please do so.

Mary Jane Goodrick told us we had raised over $4000 for the Food Fight in March, but she did not yet have a total or check from Valle Verde.

President-elect Andy Heideman said something about the officers training April 9 in Tucson (but what?) He is considering an activity for the Club in the 1st quarter of the coming Rotary year in lieu of one meeting, something to increase our visibility in the community and make our club more vibrant, and he is requesting ideas. He would also like to have a Club Assembly in June. He added that anyone should feel free to call him at any time.

Coming Events

- Rotary Leadership Institute, May 7, Viscount Hotel, Tucson
- I-19 Mixer, Tubac, May 13, 5 PM

Council on Legislation

This year's Council on Legislation gave clubs the freedom to vary meeting times and places and modes (online or in person) as long as they meet at least twice a month. 6 membership criteria were dropped from the RI constitution: new members need only be of good character and be willing to serve the community. RI is also increasing dues by $4 per year for the next 3 years to make improvements to their website and to help clubs increase their membership.
