Sgt-at-Arms Pins

Frank Coggins and Nick Clement received pins for their work as Sergeants-at-Arms for the Club. Past-president Katie Carter also presented Nick with thanks for his service during her term as President.

A Prairie Poet 4th of July

Our Prairie Poet, Marvin Hass, shared his poem of the month (see his website), a thoughtful look at the family and home values we celebrate when we remember that freedom isn't free and that part of fighting for it is defending the diversity and openness that allowed our own ancestors to become Americans.

Who Else is a Poet?

President Andy Heideman has a few ideas to spice up meetings. One is a monthly science minute from Secretary Michael Pease. Another is for just this month, a haiku (3 lines – 5 syllables, 7 syllables, 5 syllables) for the Spanish American War era. Ask Karl Leebrick. Here's a simple example:

Something sank the Maine
 And the US fought with Spain:
 Freedom for Cuba.

Green Valley Council

GVC President Don Weaver reminded us that the GVC is the voice of our unincorporated community speaking to county, state, and federal agencies on issues that affect our lifestyle. GVC was founded 43 years ago, includes 75 member HOA's, and is an all-volunteer group run by 150 members, including our own Dick Roberts, Bill Copeland, and Chet Davis. He handed out their 4-goal Road Map to 2025. They aim to be more responsive to resident needs, ensure community strength through collaboration and communication, instill pride and commitment in Green Valley community, and provide an environment that allows individuals to achieve their desired quality of life.
