♪♪ Getting to Know Us ♪♪

President Andy Heideman gave us a variation on Mark Dugan's mystery Rotarian. This was a multiple choice about Jill Leach, asking which statement was not true. Turned out Jill did not wrestle alligators one summer in Alabama, has not captured 3000 pokemon, but she is a swimmer, a former newspaper editor, has 3 sons and 3 grandkids, and likes the Outlander series (750 pages in the 2nd of 8 books!!).

Sudden Loss

90 years old.

We learned from the Green Valley News and Sun that our frequent guest, Sally Miglianti, passed away on July 20, just one day after attending a meeting with us. She was a former Rotarian from Oneonta, NY. She was

Looking Back and Ahead

Katie Carter gave us a look back at our accomplishments this year: We gave dictionaries again to 5th graders at Continental School. 3 of us (Dick, Katie, Eugene) mentored students at CS. We taught the 4 Way Test to 2nd graders using the Goober Guys curriculum. We bought coats for the kids at the Nogales, and we took a crew of kids to Walmart and bought them winter jackets and other clothes.

We had an outstanding holiday party with Valle Verde at the Elks Club, participated in Salvation Army bell ringing, and did right well at our Brats Cookout in October. Carl Zimmerman provided the food for that and our Spring Spaghetti Spree. We raised $600 on the spur of the moment for a desperate mother, and we once again served coffee for Veterans in November. Some of us went on a hunger walk for the Food Bank. We sponsored (led by Katie) an Interact Club at the high schools. And we won the Food Fight with Valle Verde for the 2nd time this last 10 years.

Jill Leach, who along with Paul Loomans and Bill McCreery led our very successful Spring Bacchanal, was named our Rotarian of the Year. Marvin Hass again chaired our Community Volunteer of the Year Awards. We also gave $1000 as promised to the Microcredit Project, and through our Foundation provided $1000 scholarships to 3 students.

Looking ahead, President Andy Heideman plans for us to partner with CASA for some local service projects. He also would like us to give feedback on our meetings, what we like and don't. Past President Dick Roberts told us our Foundation is considering a garage sale, and that they support CPAC and of course the Food Bank.
