Membership

Past-president Jack Carter talked to the Club about how retirement leads to new activities, new locations, and new friends, and that we can emphasize the friendship opportunities that Rotary membership provides as well as the ways we can give back to our community and our world. But don't try to sign them up during lunch. Let them have fun without pressure.

Rotary on the Road

Past District Governor Julie Reppenhagen said that since we all seemed to enjoy our visit to the Green Valley Hospital, we would try a lunch visit to Casa Community Services in September, where we'll have a chance to see first-hand what they do for seniors and kids and consider how we can help with a service project. We'll have a sign-up sheet in September.

Membership Survey

President Andy Heideman presented the results of our survey of the members:

New service project ideas included having more local service days, helping seniors with home maintenance, more involvement with kids, teacher good idea awards, and helping disabled vets. Bringing back the golf tournament led ideas for new fundraisers. Camaraderie and friendship topped the list of things members like about the Club.

Suggestions for changes or improvements included more opportunities for fellowship, more younger members, free beer, better networking with other organizations, and better food. There was some concern about labor intensity of the Spaghetti Spree, but the consensus was to keep our current fundraisers.

The idea of having some meetings "on the road" like our visit to the hospital was met with an enthusiastic "yes," so as Julie indicated earlier, we'll start with a visit to CCS. Responses to the idea of a morning social meeting at Posada Java were mixed, however. Many liked the idea, but some can't make it or are worried about noise (memories of the Torres Blancas meeting?).

The response to the question about Jack's jokes was also rather mixed. Many yeses, but several dislikes as well. Dick Roberts recalled we helped do voting booths and a simulated election at Continental School some years back, but didn't recall the details.
