Major Donors

RI Foundation Rep Chris Ashcraft reminded us that Rotary is dedicated to promoting peace, fighting disease, providing clean water, saving mothers and children, supporting education, and growing local economies, then presented Charlie and Julie Reppenhagen with their major donor pins, saying that they have invested in the future of humanity.

Exchange Student

We had a fair-sized group on hand to meet our exchange student, Kenzo Nakamura, when he arrived from Brazil last week. He'll be staying with Jack and Katie for his first 3 months here. A 3rd host family is still needed.

Mitzvah Day

Marcia Wiener, a passionate painter, sculptor, and weaver, retired to Green Valley in 2003 after a career directing art and recreation programs, including the art gallery at Stony Brook, is one of the original organizers of Mitzvah Day in 2014.

A mitzvah is a good deed. Mitzvah Day's motto is "Gratitude in action." In 2014 nearly 30,000 people from many different faith (and nonfaith) traditions participated in projects to help their communities. Mitzvah Day encourages people to do good deeds by providing the opportunity to work in groups on worthwhile projects identified by non-profit organizations in Green Valley, Sahuarita, and the rest of the valley.

Mike Finkelstein told us that in the last 2½ years they've provided service for 20 different organizations, including Amado Youth Center, 3 food banks, Valley Assistance Services, Casa, and White Elephant. They usually send people in groups of 4 for 3 hours. Not all of the work is as active as pulling weeds or painting; some is desk work. Signups for the November 4 date will be the week prior at St. Francis.
