Peanut Butter This Tuesday

Because the Club met at Casa Community Services last Tuesday, Peanut Butter Tuesday is this week. Let's do what we can to help out the Food Bank.

2 Weeks to the Brats Cookout

The Brats Cookout is just 2 weeks away. Make sure you've signed up to help, and turn in that ticket money. Sign up with Frank Coggins, co-chair who's handling the schedule. There are changes to deal with this year: no overhead canopy, for one. We might even get witches again.

Coming Events

- Brats Cookout, October 29
- Foundation Workshop, Tucson, Nov. 5
- Ride to End Polio, November 19
- Club Dark, November 22

Casa Community Services

The Club met for lunch last week at Casa Community Services (cost will be part of quarter 2 billing). Casa hosts Green Valley's only Senior Lunch, 5 days a week. Besides an inexpensive nutritionally balanced meal, participants get the social contact so necessary for overall health. Casa even hands out bus tickets for those who need them, 1 to get them home and 1 more to come back.

We tiptoed through our visit to Los Niños del Valle, Casa's child care and preschool program, because it was nap time. Julie noticed that one hallway had been made into a classroom because of lack to space.

Casa Director Bill McCreery explained how the Adult Day Services provided the relief to the senior's caregiver that could literally make the difference between life and death by reversing the spiral into exhaustion. While we were in a large rec room that had been converted from a patio, he talked about plans to make the playground into something more like what he and many of us had in our childhoods – natural outdoors with sand and water and trees and such, where play unstructured and full of discovery.

Our Club plans to visit the preschool once a quarter to read to the kids and give away books.
