This and That

Past President Katie Carter reminded us we still need a few more donations to help Kenzo, our exchange student from Brazil, to go help build Rotary's Rose Bowl float.

Be sure to ask someone today where on the La Posada campus our holiday party is, and let's pay today if we can.

Don't forget today is PEANUT BUTTER TUESDAY.

Meeting at Wyndham

Because of the fire in the kitchen at Grill on the Green, not only will we meet today, December 6, at the Wyndham Hotel, but also next week, December 13. The staff of the Grill will be working hard to take care of us while they make repairs.

Coming Events

- Holiday Party, December 8, La Posada. El Dorado Rm.
- Club Dark, December 20 and 27

Election of Officers

Next week at our Club Assembly we'll elect officers for the 2017-2018 Rotary year.

President – Julie Reppenhagen
 Pres-elect – Jill Leach
 Pres-nominee – Paul Loomans
 Treasurer – Becky Roberts
 Secretary – Michael Pease

We'll also hear several reports.

Sports Reporting for GV News

Chris Boan, an award-winning sports journalist, graduated Colorado State U in 2013, and he's been here in Green Valley just 27 months. He was very into sports in high school, but his fast ball wasn't fast enough beyond that.

He added that sports writers are all failed jocks.

He said he spent 4 years at the bottom when he started, with ballroom dancing his first assignment. He quickly discovered Green Valley is more than it first appears; he "got his butt kicked" at tennis by a 96-year-old. Boan said reporting is a brutal career, and it involves more number crunching than he expected. On the other hand, it forced him out of his bubble and taught him to communicate with people, public speaking as well as one on one. When asked how he finds stories, he said by being out in the community. He showed off a couple of his stories, one about a trove of artifacts and documents found in GV and donated to the Air Force Academy. The other was in in-depth look at Sahuarita High's track coach Joe Prince and his life of overcoming..
