RYLA Students

Kenzo Nakamura, our exchange student from Brazil, and Sariah Perez, who was also sponsored by our Club, enthusiastically thanked Rotary for their experiences at RYLA, where effective leadership skills are taught.

Foundation Garage Sale Saturday

Past President Dick Roberts announced the Foundation's garage sale will be February 18. He needs donations at his garage by 1 PM on the 17th, and of course we can use all the help we can get. Please make the donations something we can sell.

Coming Events

- Foundation Garage Sale, February 18.
- District Grant Reading Program at Casa del los Niños, February 24. Volunteers needed.
- Jazz in the Desert, February 26

RI Honors Our Club

ADG Joyce Finkelstein presented Past-president Katie Carter with a banner for the Rotary Foundation Giving Club. 100% of our members gave to RI last year, and at least $100 each. Only 4600 out of the more than 50,000 clubs have done that.

Community Investment Fund

Collette Brown, who came to Freeport McMoRan in 2015 from Montana with 17 years' experience in the natural resource industry, told the Club that Freeport is looking for sustainable projects that can continue when Freeport is no longer around. Since 2010 they've met quarterly with a panel of stakeholders, and she said they gave $460,000 to local nonprofits in 2016, and $2.9 million over the last 5 years. They've focused on 4 areas: community and economic development ($414k), education ($981k), environment ($368k), and health and wellness ($1.2m). The Reid Park Zoo Animal Health Center is the result of a recent $1m grant from Freeport. They are receiving grant proposals from March to June 1, and there are literally thousands of organizations in Pima County seeking money.
