Justin Dodds is a native of Tucson and new to Rotary. He’s worked with Wells Fargo Advisors for 17 years after discovering he didn’t really care for the medical career he’d been planning. Let’s all make them very welcome and put them right to work.

Coming Events

- RLI, March 18, Sierra Vista.
- Bacchanal Fundraiser, March 25
- District Conference, April 28-30, Yuma

Bring a friend to lunch

Bacchanal March 25

Jill Leach and Paul Loomans reminded us that our 3rd major fundraiser is coming up in just 18 days. Jill is looking for help getting donations for gift baskets (only 10 or so this year), male help to hit up the golf courses. Paul has tickets to hand out today. Their efforts helped our Winefest evolve from a Mardi Gras theme to a more general wine party. Pat Pease is working to replace Bacchus with a new, somewhat orgiastic backdrop.

Adamson-Catino Trail

Steven Anderson, Planning Division Manager for Pima County Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation Department, shared with the Club the current status of the Pima County hiking and biking trails, especially the Adamson-Catino trail which runs 1.9 miles along the Santa Cruz River from Abrego through the FICO pecan orchards to the Canoa Preserve. They have a $39,000 grant from Freeport McMoRan, and are coordinating with FICO and Union Pacific Railroad, which the trail goes under at one point. Work on the trail should be done by this fall. It is for hikers, bikers, and equestrians, but not for motorized vehicles.

Anderson also talked about other local Pima Co. trails, including “The Loop”, a 131 mile trail around Tucson, with links to Marana, Oro Valley, and South Tucson. They are looking for grants for a trail and hiking bridge over the I-10 near Tangerine Road.
