Food Fight Begins

Past-president Jack Carter got the Food Fight off to a great start in his auctioneer style, holding up a $20 bill and asking people to match it. We had a few who pitched in with $100. Remember each dollar is equivalent to approximately 9 lbs of food. Last year we beat Valle Verde for only the 2nd time in the last 10 years. Tragically, the banner that goes to the winning Club is among the things that were in storage down at Grill on the Green and may well have been lost in the fire. We won't know until we can get access.

Bacchanal March 25

Jill Leach and Paul Loomans reminded us that our 3rd major fundraiser is coming up in just 11 days. Jill is looking for help getting donations for gift baskets (only 10 or so this year), male help to hit up the golf courses. Paul has tickets to hand out today.

Coming Events

- RLI, March 18, Sierra Vista.
- Bacchanal Fundraiser, March 25
- District Conference, April 28-30, Yuma

GVR's Retire AZ Website

Kent Blumenthal, who has been GVR's CEO since January, 2014, has 35 years' experience in executive leadership with non-profit organizations.

He told us Green Valley's economic recovery has been lagging, and the planned website, the result of a generous $44,000 grant from the Freeport McMoRan Community Foundation, aims at increasing economic development and tourism, boosting the demand for homes for sale and rent, enhancing collaboration among community leaders and organizations, and strengthening community well-being. They plan to deliver community content to the developer, who took 5 months to find, by June 1 and launch the site sometime in September or October.

Regina Ford, who is VP for GVR's Community Foundation, shared some of their demographic research. Based on the PEW survey, 10,000 Americans turn 65 every day since 2013. Asking "What do we want to be when we grow up," she said the goal of GVR's Community Partner Council, which was established April 15, is to represent community interests and stakeholders and provide content and improvements.
