Back from Thailand

Ken Frahm, who went to Thailand with Eugene Friesen and Bill Miller, brought back banners from 5 different Rotary Clubs. He promises a presentation to the Club in the near future.

GVC and Sahuarita Leaders

In a preface to our Community Service Awards, GVC President Don Weaver and Sahuarita Mayor Tom Murphy addressed the Club. Weaver announced that the Lions Club is giving up its recycling activities, and he praised the White Elephant for giving $2 million a year to the community, and praised the Food Bank and Animal League as well. Murphy said he sees a lot of hope for the future in our youth in spite of the Boomers aging out.

Coming Events

- District Conference, April 28-30, Yuma
- Club Leadership Assembly, May 20, Sheraton-Tucson.

Community Service Awards

Ted Hoeger told us the Fire Corps changes smoke detector batteries, relocates rattle snakes, and takes the burden of non-emergency tasks off the fire department. The reward, he says, is a happy heart.

Don and Roberta Leake volunteer at the Tumacácori National Historical Park, Roberta at the visitor center and Don in maintenance. The Park has a 2-week fiesta coming up in December.

Bill McCreery told us about Nancy Stewart, who grew up playing music for her pastor grandfather and has been with Adult Day Service for 15 years. "Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves."

Peggy McGee leads the Women of Quail Creek, and took them out of the gate into the community. They do a clothing drive and baby showers for the military. She volunteers at VAS.

This year's winner was Chuck Hill, also of the GV Fire Corps. He has helped triple the number of bike lanes in Green Valley and helped the Fire Corps get $40,000 in federal grants. They've been installing smoke alarms in local homes built without them.
