Brats Cookout Saturday

Our Fall fundraiser is coming up this Saturday. Let's get those tickets sold and sign up to help. Past-president Katie Carter is event chairperson this year.

US Secret Service

Agent Glenn Dennis, who has 26 years' experience doing investigations, has been with the Secret Service for 16 years and is now Resident Agent in Charge here in Tucson. He told us the Service began in 1865 as a branch of the Treasury Department, tasked with controlling the rampant counterfeiting following the Civil War. After the assassinations of 3 Presidents (Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley), protecting the President and Vice President was added to their mission. Agent Dennis described the extensive (and intense) training of agents, who are selected not just for their 4-year degree but also for experience beyond school and for people skills. A 6-9-month background check weeds out 90%. He said a day's work can involve both office work checking bank records and 2 AM guard duty in a mosquito-infested stairwell. The SS has people all over the world. The 4 agents in the Tucson office act as a force multiplier for local law enforcement agencies. They tackle large scale cases of identity theft and counterfeiting, Dennis himself worked 5 years in Florida, 4 in DC, and was part of the protection detail for Joe Biden for 7½ years.
