New Member

District Governor Joe Hentges inducted our newest member, Bob Auflick, into our Club. Bob has been a Rotarian (Casper, WY) since 2006. He is a former District Director for the U.S. Small Business Association. Marvin Hass is his sponsor.

President's Citation

The District Governor also presented Katie Carter with a President's Citation for the Interact Club we and the Valle Verde Club sponsor. Those kids have helped at our fundraisers.

Coming Events

- Club Dark – December 26, January 2.

Paul Harris

The DG presented Joe Sovis with his Paul Harris+5 pin. Joe, who spends the warmer months in Michigan, has been a member of our Club since 2015 and a regular sojourner for many years before that.

Surprised Much?

DG Hentges surprised Club Secretary Michael Pease with an award – Above and Beyond – citing the many things he does to keep the Club running. Secretary since 2006, Michael also edits the Desert Wheel newsletter, handles AV for meetings, assists the Treasurer with quarterly billing, and maintains the Club website.

Plant a Tree

DG Hentges reminded us most people are in Rotary for 2 things: friendship and the opportunity for doing good in the local community. He wished us a happy 47th birthday. The Governor's challenge project includes early childhood development and literacy, and participation in a district or global grant. The RI President's challenge project is for every Rotarian to plant a tree by World Earth Day, April 22. He said the roadmap to our future requires strengthening Clubs, developing leaders, supporting youth serving communities, polio eradication, and promoting a greater awareness of Rotary. Most of all, though, he emphasized Club fellowship and fun.
