This and That

Past-president Katie Carter thanked all the members and friends who helped make the Spaghetti Spree a success. We had planned for about 300 people but served nearly 450. At one point Dave Polsky went out to buy an extra 30 lbs of (dry) spaghetti. Katie also said the raffle winner and her son got up after eating and starting clearing tables. Someone needs to recruit that gal, eh?

Community Service Awards

Marvin Hass (our Prairie Poet) is looking for nominations for this year's community service awards. We have to set a deadline of February 15, which leaves March for the decision and early April for the award.

Look for an application form on the website.

Coming Events

- Reading at Continental School, Feb 12-16
- Jazz in the Desert – March 3
- Bacchanal Fundraiser – March 25

Fond Farewell

Mary Jane Goodrick, who has been Foundation President this last year, is retiring from her post as Director of the Food Bank and leaving the Club (for now) to travel. This may well have been her first and last chance at the joker pot. Best wishes, Mary Jane. We'll miss you.

Paul Harris

RI Rep Chris Ashcraft gave Joe Potter his Paul Harris+1 pin. Joe spends his summers in Rhode Island but winters with us. He and Joe Sovis have chaired the Spaghetti Spree more than once.

Vets Oral History Project

Les Bakke, an IT guy who was a Russian linguist and Intel Analyst for the USAF, shared with the Club several tales of minority soldiers in WWII. White soldiers at Bastogne (The Battling Bastards) were surprised Negroes didn't have tails, and Eleanor Roosevelt was surprised they (Tuskegee Airmen) could fly planes. 1 of the 4 flag raisers at Iwo Jima was Native American, and don't forget our Navajo Code Talkers. In spite of 120,000 Japanese Americans being sent to internment camps, many volunteered to serve (442nd Infantry Regiment). The military was integrated by President Truman in 1948.
