Rotary on the Road

Next week our “meeting” will be a tour and a picnic at the Canoa Ranch Visitor Center. Be sure to sign up today, pick out your sandwich type, and check out the location on your way home today. Be there by 10:45.

Bacchanal on the Horizon

Marvin Hass told us that tickets for the Bacchanal will be $20, but members will only be asked to sell 5 of them. Much of the money raised comes from corporate sponsors, and Marvin said that part is going well. He also reported this week that we have 11 nominees for the Community Service Award.

Coming Events

- Rotary on the Road, February 27, 10:45 at Canoa Ranch
- Jazz in the Desert – March 3
- Bacchanal Fundraiser – March 25

Career Minute

Joe Sovis shared his career and Rotary history with the Club. He was born in 1940 to Czech immigrants, educated at Michigan State, served with the Army (and honeymooned) in Paris, then joined his father’s insurance business, working at it for 38 years, 25 with his father, and growing it from a home business to 3 offices representing 20 companies. He joined Rotary in 1972, was Club President in 1976, and brought Rotary Youth Exchange to his Club. At one point their program involved 125 kids.

La Posada Readers Theater

The Readers Theater group from La Posada entertained us with a skit about senior citizens and online dating. The somewhat nervous ladies set up an elaborate verbal code scheme prior to the men’s arrival, but the men, when they arrived, began making negative comments to each other about the appearance of past presidents, and it was clear they had their own very similar code system, and they left with headaches. Regina Ford, who organized the group, reminded us the community center is just that, open to all of us in Green Valley for many uses.
