Rotary on the Road

This week our “meeting” will be a tour and a picnic at the Canoa Ranch Visitor Center. Entrance is off the East Frontage Road just south of the hospital. Be there by 10:45, and beware of closures on the frontage roads. Cost this week is $15.

Bacchanal on the Horizon

Jill Leach told us that tickets for the Bacchanal will be $20, but members will only be asked to sell 5 of them. We will need all of us to help. Corporate sponsorships are going well so far. This year we will have a chocolate fountain, and Pat Pease has begun work on a new version of the Bacchus backdrop.

Coming Events

- Jazz in the Desert – March 3
- Bacchanal Fundraiser – March 25

Scholarships

Julie Woodward told us the Women of Quail Creek are giving out two $1500 scholarships to “women in transition.” Applicants must be 21 or older and eligible or accepted to a post-secondary degree or certificate program. Applications are due March 30 and recipients announced by April 18. (see website, womenqc.com/scholarships)

Community Foundation

Michelle Phillips, who has an MA in educational leadership, 23 years experience managing non-profits, and 11 years as executive director at GGVCF, told us their mission is to guide, educate, and provide support for local non-profit organizations. In 2017 they granted $30,000 to 22 agencies and made $25,000 matching grants to 2 agencies. Their vision is to improve the quality of life for present and future generations in our area by investing in our community. The foundation helps organizations make strategic plans in addition to giving money. She said half a million dollars will change an organization, its goals and its approach to them. Their annual SoAZ Culturefest is this Saturday, March 3, and they will have a Write-a-Will workshop March 15. See more at gvsvolunteering.org/organization/greater-green-valley-community-foundation/
