Special Donation

The Board was so impressed with the program about Therapeutic Riding of Tucson presented by Sandy Webster (left) a couple of weeks ago, they decided to make a substantial donation, and since Nancy McGibbon (Bill's wife) (center) was instrumental in starting the program and keeping it going these last 40 years, the $2000 donation was made in her name. President Julie Reppenhagen made the presentation.

Growing Pot

Nick Clement won a chance to draw the joker from the shrinking raffle deck, but only came up with the 3 of diamonds. The joker would have rewarded him with $886. So now the deck shrinks to 35 cards, and the pot will increase to over $900.

The game has earned the Club almost $3000 this year, as well as rewarding over 40 members with bottles of wine and 10 members with $100 Paul Harris credits with RI.

RTA Overview

Mindy Blake, who is outreach coordinator for the Pima Association of Governments, had a 30-year career as a journalist before joining PAG in 2016. She reminded us that the RTA plan is regional and includes 35 specific roadway projects and every community in Pima County. Its $2.1

billion was voter-approved and based on a ½¢ sales tax in 2006. She emphasized that RTA is the financial manager, but maintenance is the responsibility of the communities. She noted that our end of the county got a lot of the early projects, such as the downtown Tucson streetcar system, which has generated $1 billion in public and private investment along the route. Current construction includes phase 2 of Grant Road improvement, and a bridge over the railroad at Houghton. Projects recently completed include Silverbell north of Grant, the Ina/I-10 Interchange, the Twin Peaks Interchange, and 100's of miles of bike paths. But we need another RTA plan for the next 30 years.
