Welcome Back

A sure sign of Autumn, besides the changing of leaves up north, is the return of our sojourners and our members who summer far north of our desert. Last week Joe Sovis rejoined us from Michigan's Upper Peninsula, just in time for our Holiday Party and the January Spaghetti Spree he and Joe Potter have chaired several times. His return also coincided with District Governor Kirk Reed's visit to the Club. The DG presented Joe with his Paul Harris +6 pin.

Coming Events

- Club Dark, December 25 and January 1
- Spaghetti Spree, January 16, West Center

INVITE A FRIEND TO LUNCH

Welcome to Our Club

DG Kirk Reed also installed our newest member, Orji Isiogu, who is an attorney, an international consultant for utilities and telecommunication, and president of his own company, ONI Enterprises, LLC. His wife is Jennifer.

DG Reed also presented the Club with a banner citing our being #3 in per capita giving in District 5500 last year (Valle Verde beat us, of course). President Jill Leach, Past President Julie Reppenhagen, and RI Representative Chris Ashcraft received it. Ashcraft commented earlier that the Club's giving so far this year has eclipsed last year (and Eugene is leading the Sports Challenge).

DG Reed's goal is to help clubs grow and be vibrant. He asked each of us to consider how we have been inspired and how we might inspire others. He urges us to dream big, have fun, and get stuff done. He himself is a 3rd generation Rotarian and reads 50-60 books each year.
